

From: civie@gte.net@inetgw
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/15/02 10:44am
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

The politically motivated attack on Microsoft has probably done more to damage the technology sector of the stock market than any other event. Competetors of Microsoft are angry because they actually have to produce a superior product in order to stay in business. There are very few end users of Microsoft that are anxious to see the company damaged. Who is the government trying to protect? End users or competitors? Dr. Charles Ivie Director R&D Dermaprobe International